THE FIFTH
PILLAR OF ISLAM

Hajj

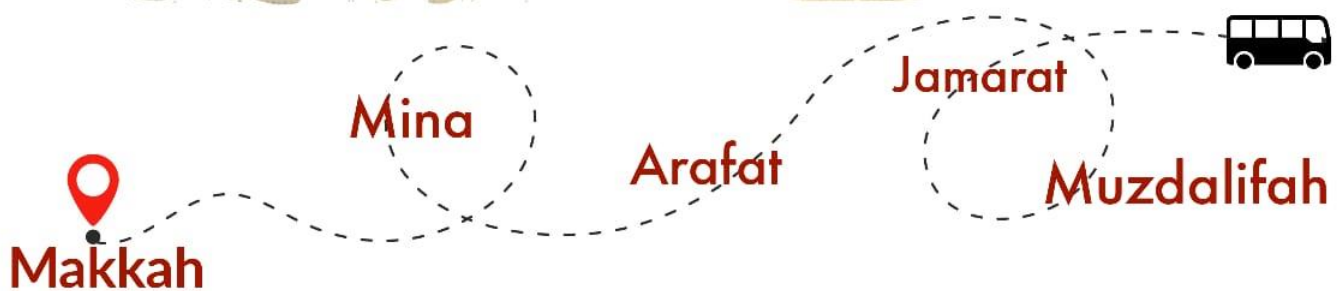

An obligation

وَلِلّٰهِ عَلَى النَّاسِ حِجُّ الْبَيْتِ
مَنْ اسْتَطَاعَ اِلَيْهِ سَبِيْلًا ط

And Hajj (Pilgrimage) to the House of Allah Ta'ala (Ka'bah) is a duty that mankind owes to Allah Ta'ala (obligation), (for) those who have the ability to manage (their) way to it (both physically and financially).

(Qur'an, 3:97)

Hajj is obligatory once in a lifetime if a person is..

Virtues of Hajj & Umrah

Pure as a new born baby

Our beloved Nabi (ﷺ) said: "Whoever performs Hajj and does not commit any obscenity [rafath] or commit any evil will go back (free of) sin as on the day his mother bore him."

(Bukhari, Muslim)

Eliminate Poverty and Sin

Our beloved Nabi (ﷺ) said: 'Keep on doing Hajj and Umrah, for they eliminate poverty and sin just as the bellows eliminate impurities from iron, gold and silver.'

(Tirmidhi, Nasa'i)

Forgiveness and Jannah

Our beloved Nabi (ﷺ) said: "From one Umrah to another is an expiation for the sins that came in between them, and Hajj Mabrur (an accepted Hajj) brings no less a reward than Paradise."

(Ibn Majah)

Erase all Sins

Our beloved Nabi (ﷺ) said: 'Hajj wipes out whatever (sins) came before it.'

(Muslim)

Hajj Mabrur (an accepted Hajj) is a Hajj:

Performed with Halal (lawful) income.

Free of evil, sin and unjust disputes (during Hajj).

Performed according to the Sunnah.

Performed purely and sincerely for Allah Ta'ala alone and not for show.

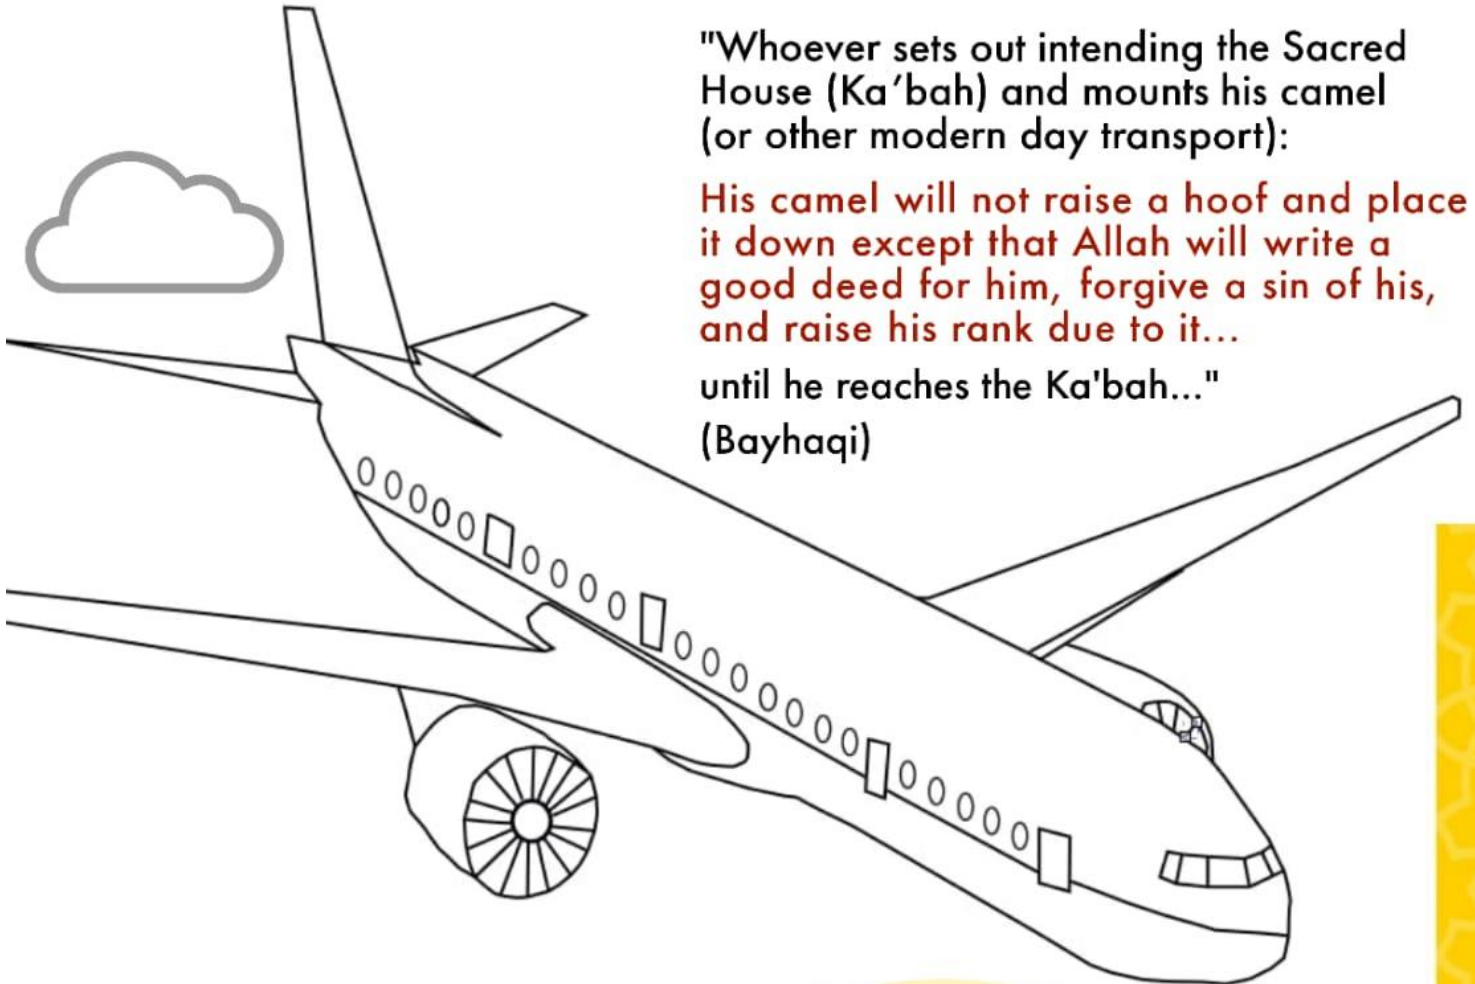

Not followed with acts of disobedience and sin.

The Journey

Let the rewards begin!

"Whoever sets out intending the Sacred House (Ka'bah) and mounts his camel (or other modern day transport):

His camel will not raise a hoof and place it down except that Allah will write a good deed for him, forgive a sin of his, and raise his rank due to it...

until he reaches the Ka'bah..."

Hajj The fifth Pillar of Islam which is obligatory on Muslims who have the means to travel at least once in a life time.	Umrah A 'Mini Pilgrimage' which can be performed anytime of the year except during the days of Hajj.	Ihram A requirement for Umrah and Hajj which begins with an intention and prohibits certain actions including stitched clothing for men.	Masjid al-Haram The Masjid wherein the Ka'bah is situated. Dhul Hijjah The twelfth and final month of the Islamic calendar during which Hajj takes place.
Ka'bah The House of Allah Ta'ala which the Muslims face when performing Salah.	Tawaf The circumambulation of the Ka'bah, which is done a total of seven times.	Sa'ee To walk between Mount Safa and Marwah seven times after performing a Tawaf for Umrah or Hajj.	Hajar al-Aswad The Black Stone found in one corner of the Ka'bah. Kissing it cleanses one of sin.
Multazam The wall between the Door of the Ka'bah and the Black Stone. Du'as are accepted here.	Mizab ar-Rahmah The water outlet of mercy. The golden spout from where rainwater from the roof of the Ka'bah falls into the Hateem.	Hateem The crescent shaped area that is immediately adjacent to the Ka'bah, it is in fact a part of the Ka'bah.	Rukn Yamani The corner of the Ka'bah that faces Yemen. Kiswah The cloth of the Glorious Ka'bah.
Maqam Ibraheem A place near the Ka'bah where there is a structure containing the footprints of Nabi Ibraheem alyahis salaam.	Zam Zam A special blessed water found in a well in Makkah close by to the Ka'bah. Whatever intention this water is drank with, Allah Ta'ala fulfils that.	Talbiyah The phrases, "Labbayk Allahumma labbayk. Labbayka..." (Here I am at your service. Oh Allah! Here I am at your service.).	Meeqat The boundaries set by our beloved Nabi ﷺ which cannot be crossed without Ihram.
Qiran A type of Hajj where the Pilgrim performs both Hajj and Umrah with a single intention and Ihram.	Tamattu A second type of Hajj where the Pilgrim performs Hajj and Umrah with two separate Ihrams and intentions.	Ifrad A third type of Hajj where the Pilgrim enters the state of Ihram and performs Hajj only. Umrah will not be performed. Halaq/Qasr Shaving or trimming the hair.	Mina The location where Pilgrims stay from Fajr on the 8th of Dhul Hijjah Arafat A place 20 km plus from Ka'bah where Pilgrims gather on the 9th of Dhul Hijjah in worship.
Ramee The pelting of the Jamarat.	Nahr Animal sacrifice	Rawdah The blessed resting place of our beloved Nabi ﷺ Ziyarah Visiting the blessed city, Masjid and grave of our beloved Nabi ﷺ	Jabal ar-Rahmah A small mount located in Arafat where Pilgrims gather and worship in hope of forgiveness.
Muzdalifah From Arafat, after sunset Pilgrims spend the night here. Jamarat The three pillars which Pilgrims pelt with pebbles that they collected in Muzdalifah.	Tawaf az-Ziyarah A compulsory Tawaf to be performed during Hajj. Tawaf al-Wida The departing Tawaf which is performed anytime after Tawaf az-Ziyarah. It is the final Wajib of Hajj.

What Happens in Hajj?

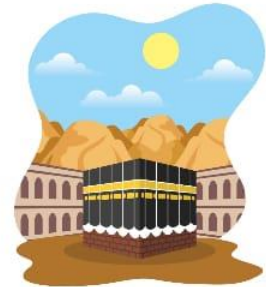

A basic break down

Millions of Muslims arrive from around the world.

Everyone must enter the state of Ihram which includes wearing two white sheets for men.

Everyone arrives in Makkah eager to see the Ka'bah and make Du'a.

They perform Tawaf (going round the Ka'bah seven times)

They perform Sa'ee (walking between Mount Safa and Marwah seven times)

Everyone will go to Mina which is a vast area with large tents.

A main part of Hajj is the worship in a place called Arafat.

One night is spent in Muzdalifah. Here, pebbles for Ramee (pelting) are collected.

First the Haji (Pilgrim) will do Ramee, and then Nahr (animal sacrifice). Thereafter Halaq/Qasr (shave/trim the hair). By doing this they are out of Ihram.

After Hajj

Some will head back home.

Some will visit Madeenah al-Munawwarah.

Talbiyah

Let's learn the words of the Pilgrims

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ
لَبَّيْكَ

Part of wearing Ihram and during the blessed days of Hajj, the Haji (person performing Hajj) will read Talbiyah.

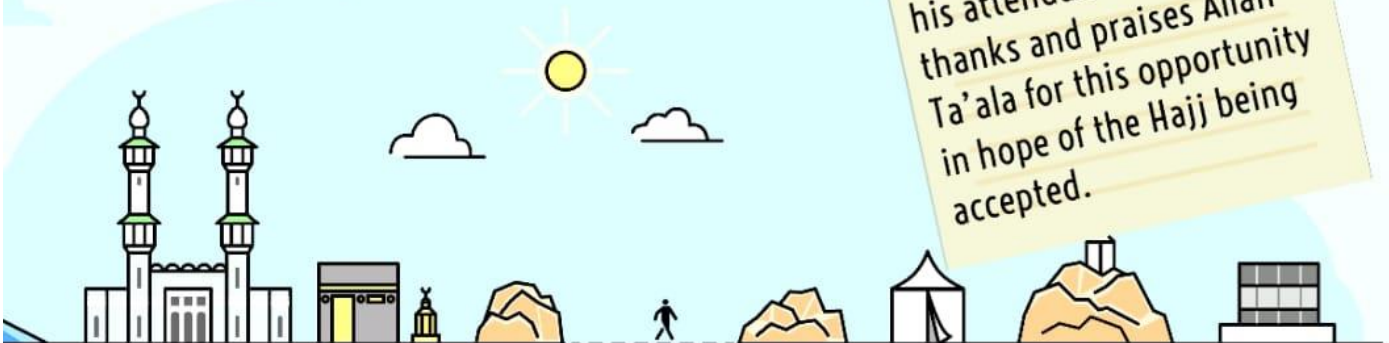

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ، لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ،
إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنَّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ

Transliteration: Labbayk Allahumma labbayk, labbayka la shareeka laka labbayk, innal-hamda wan-ni'mata laka wal-mulk la shareeka lak

"Here I am [at your service] O Allah [Ta'ala] , here I am. Here I am [at your service]. You have no partners (other gods). To You alone is all praise and all excellence, and to You is all sovereignty. There is no partner to You."

Did You Know?

Hajj is an invitation from Allah Ta'ala. Through Talbiyah, a Haji announces his attendance and also thanks and praises Allah Ta'ala for this opportunity in hope of the Hajj being accepted.

When I saw the Glorious Ka'bah

It is the Ka'bah; the House of Allah.
When I saw it, I said Subhanallah,
To others it may be, a cube in black,
But found I did, a yearn to go back.

So filled with blessings, millions in number,
Rewards so many, I find not a number,
The first sight so splendid, it made me freeze,
Deep down I felt, so peaceful at ease.

An urge I felt, from this first glance of mine,
To change and do good, I felt such incline,
Tawbah was natural, as the desire just grew,
To please my Allah, for this change was due.

I just wish this moment, I could capture and save,
The feeling of this moment, my heart sure craves,
I wish this feeling, I could save and take,
With others to share, a change to make.

Hajar al-Aswad

Read and learn about the Black Stone

Hajar al-Aswad

Stone Black

The Hajar al-Aswad which means 'Black Stone' is located in the eastern corner of the Ka'bah.

The Hajar al-Aswad is a stone from Jannah which was given to Nabi Ibraheem alayhis salam to place in the corner of the Ka'bah.

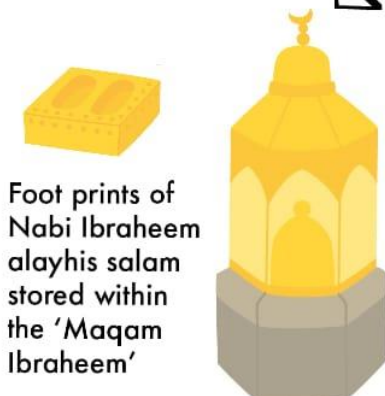

Those performing Tawaf, start and end each round of the Tawaf at the Hajar al-Aswad.

From a Hadeeth we learn that the Black Stone was actually whiter than milk, but the sins of man have turned it black. [Tirmidhi]

This stone has been kissed by many Prophets including our beloved Nabi ﷺ and many pious people including the Sahabah.

Our beloved Nabi ﷺ has told us that on the day of Qiyamah the Hajar al-Aswad will have two eyes and a tongue and will testify to the Imaan of all those who kissed it. [Tirmidhi]

"The Hajar al-Aswad and Maqam Ibraheem are two jewels from the jewels of Paradise. Had Allah (Ta'ala) not concealed their radiance, they would illuminate everything between the east and the west." [Tirmidhi]

Foot prints of Nabi Ibraheem alayhis salam stored within the 'Maqam Ibraheem'

Did you know? The Hajar al-Aswad was originally one full stone. However, due to some historical events, it is now eight small stones of different sizes. It has been attached to a large stone and encased in a silver frame.

Zam Zam

Read and learn about the best water

"The best water on the face of the earth is Zam Zam water..." [Tabarani]

"Verily, a sign between us and the hypocrites is that they do not drink Zam Zam water." [Ibn Majah]

"The water of Zam Zam is for whatever purpose it is drank for." [Ibn Majah]

Did you know? Zam Zam means 'stop stop'. As the water came with such force, Hajar alayhas salam said these words!

Du'a when Drinking Zam Zam

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَافِعًا
وَرِزْقًا وَّاسِعًا وَشِفَاءً مِّنْ كُلِّ دَاءٍ

"O Allah, grant me beneficial knowledge, abundant sustenance and a cure from all diseases." [Al-Hisn al-Haseen]

"...In it is complete nourishment and healing from sickness." [Tabarani]

Story of Zam Zam

Allah Ta'ala instructed Nabi Ibraheem alayhis salam to take his wife Hajar alayhas salam and son Ismaeel alayhis salam to a place called Makkah.

Makkah at the time was an empty desert, where no one lived. There was no food nor water.

As difficult as it was to leave them in such a place, Nabi Ibraheem alayhis salam left them and returned home.

When she reached Marwah the seventh time, she saw an angel strike his wing on the ground and water began gushing. Hajar alayhas salam gathered as much water as possible.

She then rushed to a mountain in the opposite direction known as Marwah. She rushed back and forth between these two mountains a total of seven times.

After some time they were in desperate need for water. Hajar alayhas salam went to a mountain near by, which we know as Safa to see if anyone was in sight. Sadly there was no one.

Some virtues of the day of Arafah

For the Pilgrim/Haji

"There is no day in which Allah frees more of His servants from the Fire than the Day of Arafah" (Muslim)

"Allah draws near and boasts of His servants to the angels..." (Muslim)

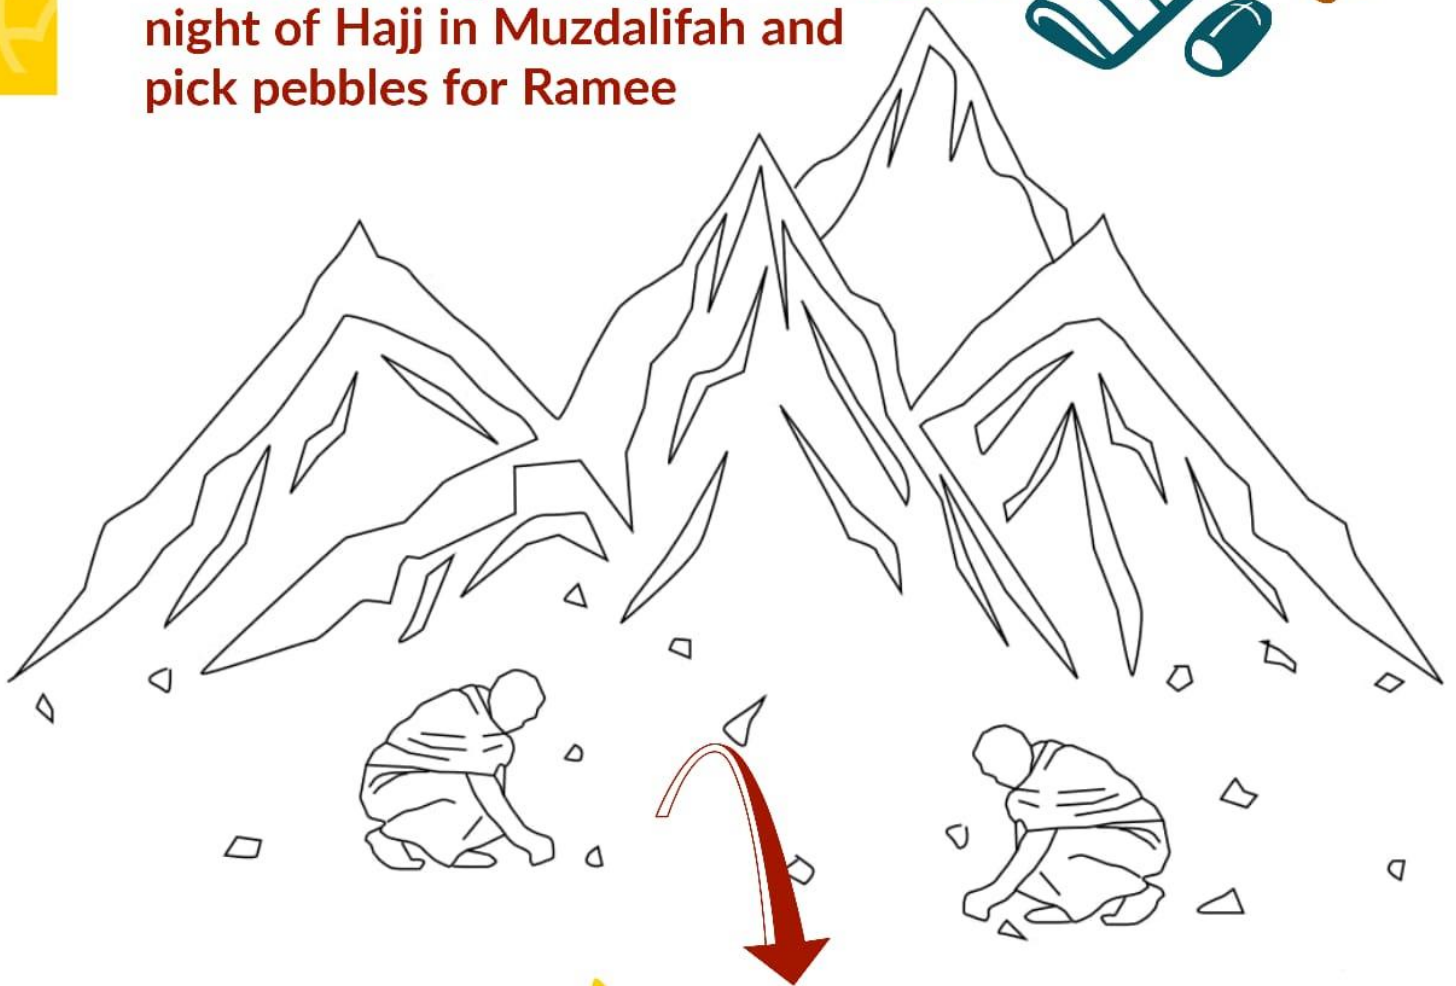

"Shaytan is not seen on a day, apart from the day of Badr, in which he looks smaller, more defeated, more despised and more infuriated than on the Day of Arafah (due to Allah forgiving His servants)..." (Bayhaqi)

For those at Home

Regarding fasting on the day of Arafah, our beloved Nabi sallallahu alayhi wassalam said, 'It compensates for the (minor) sins of the past and the coming year.' (Muslim)

Jamarat

Let's learn about pelting the Jamarat

Read the information and colour the picture.

The Jamarat are 3 pillars which symbolise Shaytan.

Pilgrims pelt the Jamarat for three days.

On the first day of Ramee, only one pillar is pelted. On the rest of the days, all three are pelted.

Thinking this is Shaytan some people throw slippers etc. This practice is incorrect.

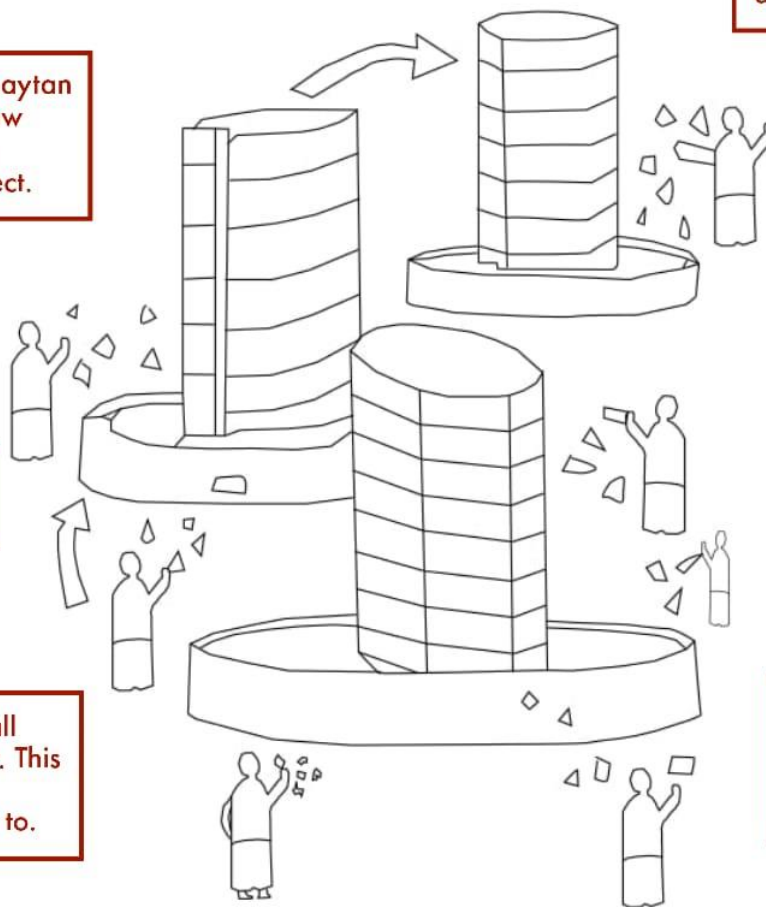

The pebbles for pelting are collected from Muzdalifah

Du'as after this are accepted.

Each person will throw seven pebbles per Jamarat.

There is a small wall around each pillar. This is the area each pebble must fall in to.

In a Hadeeth we find that, every pebble that receives acceptance, is lifted to the heavens

History

These three pillars represent the three times Shaytan tried to stop Ibraheem alayhis salam from completing Allah Ta'ala's command of sacrificing Ismaeel alayhis salam.

There are three Jamarat:

- 1) Jamaratul Ula/ Sugra - The first pillar/ smallest pillar which is situated near Masjid Khayf.
- 2) Jamaratul Wusta - The pillar which is situated in the middle.
- 3) Jamaratul Kubra/ Aqaba- The largest Jamarah

Nabi Ibraheem alayhis salam threw pebbles at Shaytan each time Shaytan came to stop him.

Till the Day of Qiyamah this action of Ibraheem alayhis salam will be remembered and replicated by millions of Hujjaj (Pilgrims)!

Hajj Question & Answer time!

What is Hajj?

Hajj is a Pilgrimage that takes place in the month of Dhul Hijjah. Hajj is also the fifth pillar of Islam.

Upon whom is Hajj Fardh?

Hajj is compulsory upon every sane and mature believer who possesses the means to perform Hajj.

How should time be spent during Hajj?

The most important aspect is to ensure no sins are committed and no time is wasted.

Along with this, all forms of Ibadah are recommended which will include:

- Tawaf and spending time in the Haramayn.
- Dhikr, Durood and recitation of the Glorious Qur'an.
- Performing all Salah in the Haramayn with Jama'ah.
- Reading Masnoon Du'as and following Sunnah practices.
- Making as much Du'a as possible.
- Try to perform Salah in the Haramayn with Jama'ah.

What is Meeqat?

Meeqat are certain borders which cannot be crossed without Ihram by those entering Makkah with the intention of Umrah/Hajj.

Benefits of Hajj?

There are many benefits of Hajj from which a few are:

- All sins are forgiven
- Jannah is promised
- Safety from poverty

What is the farewell Hajj?

The farewell Hajj is the final Hajj Nabi (ﷺ) performed a year before his demise. (10 AH)

What is Ihram?

Ihram is a special state a person enters in order to perform Umrah or Hajj. When in Ihram certain things become prohibited. The two white sheets worn by men is also known as Ihram.

Can children go for Hajj?

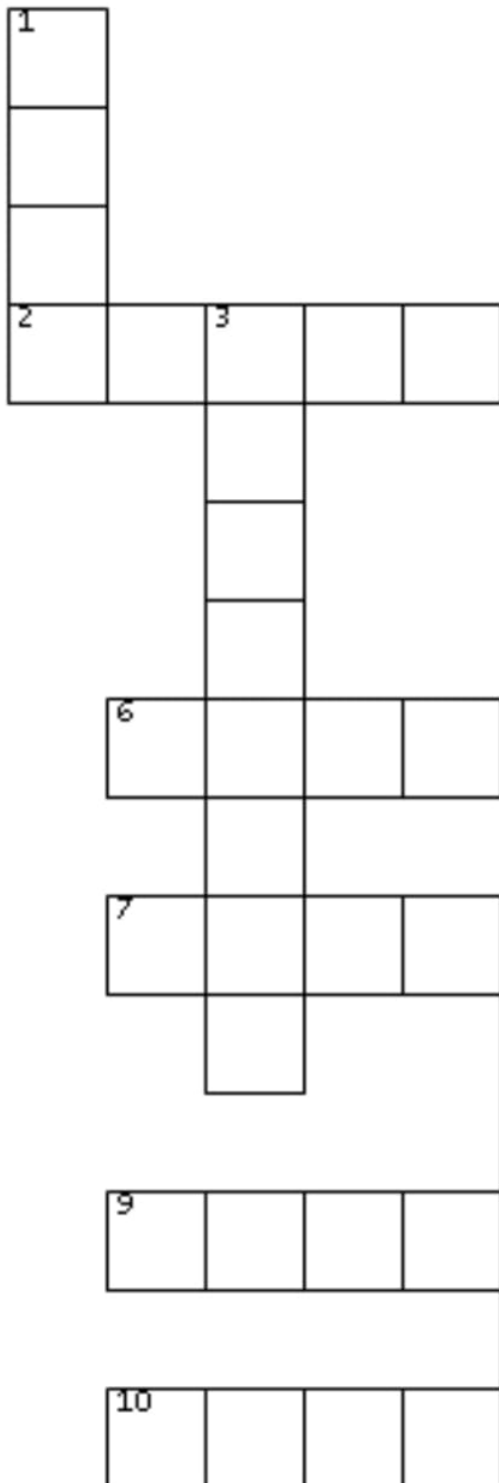

Yes, children can go for Hajj and they will get a lot of reward. However, this will not be their Fardh Hajj and therefore the obligation will still remain.

When did Hajj become compulsory?

Hajj became compulsory in the 9th year of Hijrah.

Let's Perform Umrah

Let's learn what happens in Umrah.

Umrah is a 'Mini Hajj' which is Sunnah and can be performed anytime during the year except for the days of Hajj.

Virtues of Umrah

1. One Umrah is an expiation for the sins committed between it and another Umrah. (Bukhari, Muslim)
2. To perform one Umrah in Ramadhan is equivalent to a Hajj.

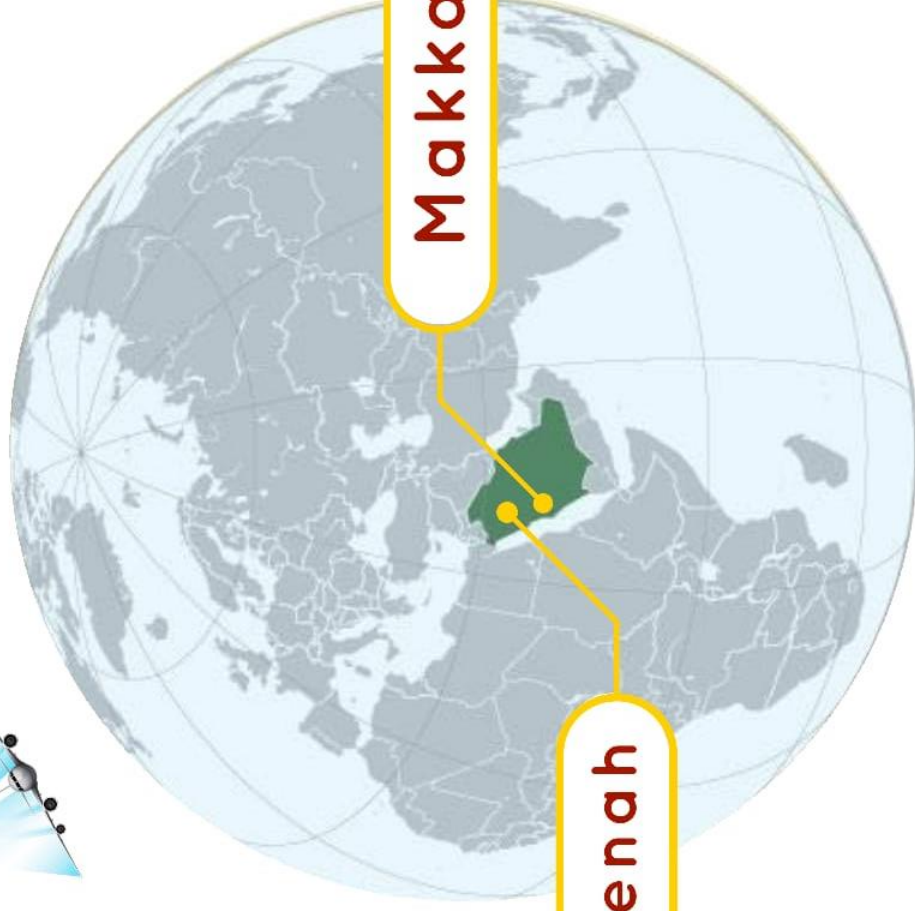

Note: In another narration there is an addition of the words 'with me'. (Muslim)

3. The performers of Hajj and Umrah are deputations of Allah Ta'ala. If they call Him, He answers them and if they seek His Forgiveness, He forgives them. (Ibn Majah)

To wear Ihram whilst already in Makkah, Pilgrims must go to Masjid A'ishah to make the Intention.

Returning Haji

Du'a and virtues for visiting a returning Pilgrim

Du'a for a person
returning from Hajj

قَبْلَ اللَّهِ حَجَّكَ وَ غَفَرَ
ذَنْبَكَ وَ أَخْلَفَ نَفَقَتَكَ

May Allah (Ta'ala) accept your Hajj, forgive your sins and recompense
your expenses.
(Tabarani)

When you meet a
Haji [on his way home], then greet him, shake hands
with him and...

...ask him to beg
forgiveness of Allah (Ta'ala) on your behalf before he enters his home...

... for his prayer for forgiveness is accepted since he is forgiven by Allah (Ta'ala)." (Ahmad)

Let's make the Ka'bah

Cut out and glue to the base to make your hateem.

Hateem

Instructions
