

Al-Wahhaab, Al-Razzaaq, Al-Muqeeet

Let's learn about 3 beautiful names of Allah Ta'ala and also a little about these 3 names.

Three of the beautiful names of Allah Ta'ala are:

- 1) الْوَهَّابُ Al-Wahhaab, The Giver of all,
- 2) الرَّزَّاقُ Al-Razzaaq, The Provider
- 3) الْمُؤَيِّتُ Al-Muqeeet, The Sustainer

All three of these names show the kindness of Allah Ta'ala on all of His servants. In fact, Allah Ta'ala is so kind that He gives to his servants even when they disobey Him!

Some of the things Allah Ta'ala gives us is food, drink, clothing, shelter and much more.

Knowing these amazing qualities of Allah Ta'ala we should always be grateful to Him and always rely on Him for all of our needs and never lose hope.

Sayyiduna Umar رضي الله عنه said that he heard our beloved Nabi ﷺ say;

'If you were to rely on Allah (Ta'ala) as He should be relied on, He would provide for you as He provides for the birds. They go out early in the morning hungry and return in the evening full.' (Tirmidhi)

Also, Allah Ta'ala says in the Glorious Qur'an:

"And there is no creature on earth but that upon Allah is its provision, and He knows its place of dwelling and place of storage." (11:6)

STORYTime

Have you read the story about the Sparrow, the Robber and the Snake?

The Sparrow, the Robber and the Snake

A gang of robbers were once out robbing. Along the way, they came by three date trees. It looked like an ideal place to stop and rest.

One of the trees was barren and two had ripe dates.

The gang leader while looking up at the trees saw something unusual. He saw a sparrow flying to and from the date trees and the barren tree.

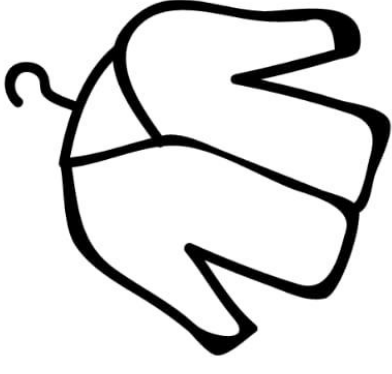

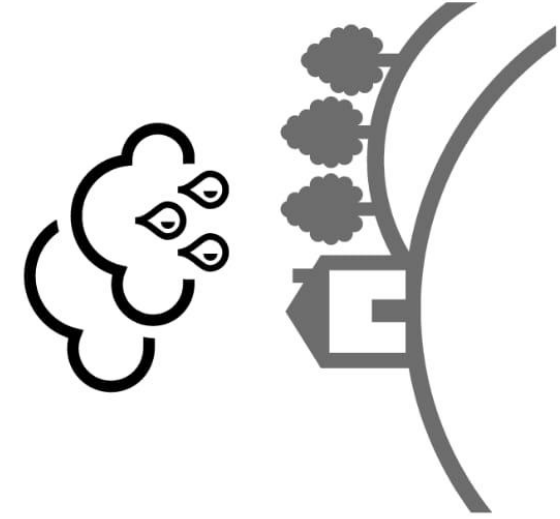

He watched for a while but couldn't understand what was happening so he climbed the barren tree to see what the sparrow was up to.

To his astonishment, he saw a blind snake sitting there with his mouth wide open and the sparrow came and dropped a date into its mouth. The robber was shocked. The sparrow was feeding the blind snake!

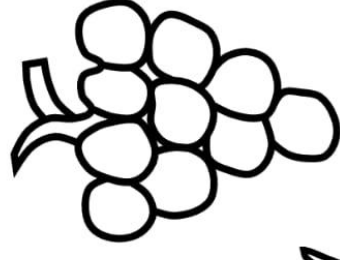

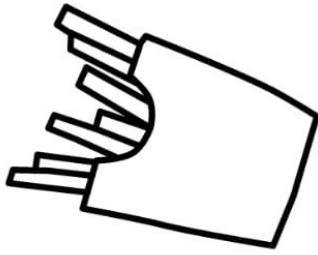

He climbed back down and started crying. He felt so ashamed at being a robber when Allah Ta'ala was so kind to feed a snake through a bird.

He raised his hands and asked Allah Ta'ala for forgiveness. He broke his sword over his knees and threw the pieces away and then went to his people and told them what he saw. They too broke their swords and turned to Allah Ta'ala and changed their ways.

What you need:

- 1) Printout of the activity
- 2) Scissors
- 3) Glue
- 4) Card

What you need to do:

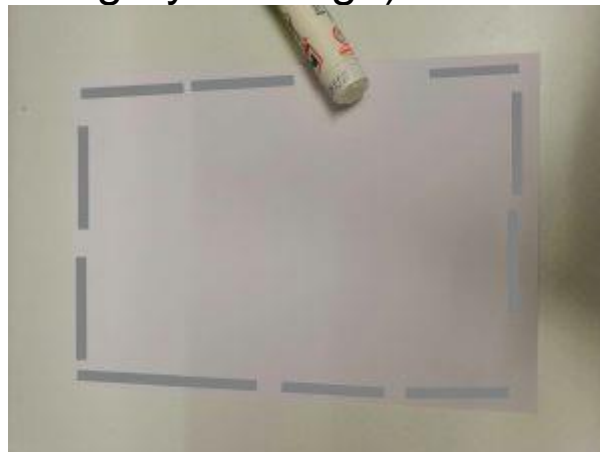

- 1) Very carefully make slits in your vegetable plot along the wavy lines.

2) Very carefully make a slit along the edge of the basket as marked in white.

3) Now turn the sheet over to the blank side and glue along the edges only (marked in grey in image) and stick to the plain card.

4) Cut out each vegetable carefully. It is a good idea to laminate them after cutting and then cutting the laminated sheet too.

Print and cut out these vegetables:

5) Place your vegetables in the slits you made on the vegetable plot

6) When you are ready to harvest the lovely vegetables Allah Ta'ala gave us then pull them out and place them in your basket!
