Birth of Eesaa

عليه السلام

A Prophet of Allah Ta'ala!

Allah Ta'ala wanted to show mankind that He could create a child without a father, just like He created Sayyiduna Adam alayhis salam without a father or a mother.

NEWS OF A BABY BOY

Once, Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam went to the eastern part of al-Masjid al-Aqsa.

Angel Jibreel (Gabriel) alayhis salam appeared in human form.

He informed Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam about Allah Ta'ala granting her a pious son!

She was puzzled and questioned how this was possible as she was pure and no man had touched her.

ABOUT HER PREGNANCY

She was told she will definitely be having a child as for Allah Ta'ala everything is possible.

She further learnt that her son's title will be Maseeh and his name will be Eesaa (Jesus) and that he will be a messenger (Prophet).

Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam became pregnant and was expecting a baby just as Allah Ta'ala had willed.

The days quickly passed and the time to deliver the child came. She left her home and travelled to a place called Bethlehem.

BIRTH OF A PROPHET

Upon reaching Bethlehem, she felt the first pains of childbirth. Knowing the time was near, she sat under a date tree and leaned against its trunk.

Allah Ta'ala created a spring of water for her to quench her thirst and provided dates from the palm tree for her to eat.

Within no time, Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam gave birth to Sayyiduna Eesaa alayhis salam. She was overjoyed!

Miracle of Nabi Eesaa alayhis salam talking as a baby!

With the newborn Eesaa alayhis salam in her arms, it was time for Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam to meet her people and share the news of her baby with them. She was really worried, as they would question how she had a child without marriage. What would she say?

Allah Ta'ala always helps his obedient servants. To help Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam, Allah Ta'ala showed the people an amazing miracle!

She was told by Jibreel alayhis salam to tell the people she was fasting. In those days, people who fasted did not eat, drink or talk. She was also told to point in the direction of Sayyiduna Eesaa alayhis salam.

When she returned to her people, as was expected, they shamed her reminding her of her pure lineage and expressed their sense of disbelief. Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam remained silent and pointed at her baby.

Surprised, the people said, "Don't be silly Maryam! How can we speak to a child who is still a baby in the cradle?"

However, to their amazement they heard the child say, "I am the servant of Allah. He has decided to give me the Book and make me a Prophet."

The people were amazed and very quickly believed Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam and knew that Sayyiduna Eesaa alayhis salams birth was a sign of Allah Ta'ala's power. This made them respect and honour Sayyidah Maryam alayhas salam even more!
